Principals/Staff Reports

Superintendent's Report

Ms. Nelson said that March 22nd is the target date to return all students to in-person at NYCS, rather than one lodge at a time.

Students in K-5, 8th grade, 12th grade and high needs students are all back 4 days a week at the public school. Admin is currently working on a plan to get all students back to 4 days a week.

The first round of sports is currently concluding. Ms. Nelson stated that we have been very fortunate that there were no shutdowns of games or practices due to COVID.

The County has moved to Phase 3. This will allow additional fans at sporting events.

K-12 FTE – 301, NYCS FTE – 57

Ms. Hoagland received a donation of lumber from Craig Frueling to build some planter boxes and raised beds for the science classes. Mr. Nelson's shop class will build the boxes.
